Dear Parent/Guardian,

St. John Bosco Community College will host a Summer Programme during the weeks beginning June 16th and June 23rd. The programme will be designed to provide those that participate, opportunities to experience enjoyable activities, positive learning and promotion of self-confidence and wellbeing.

The Summer Programme will be based on the theme “Building Confidence and Connections”. Opportunities will be provided for development of social, emotional and learning skills. Participants will also develop friendships, improve confidence, and strengthen their familiarity with and connection to the school environment.

Potential activities include:

- Literacy/Numeracy Skills
- IT Skills
- Cookery Life Skills – preparing breakfast and lunch snacks and tasty treats.
- Art & Craft ex. tie dye t-shirts
- Photography
- Sports options incl. Basketball/Soccer/Walking/Pitch & Putt
- Music Generation Workshop incl. visit to recording studio
- Barista Skills Workshop – developing skills for use in hospitality.
- Table Quiz/Bingo/Board Games
- Day trips ex. Kilkee, Lahinch, Wilde’s Chocolate Tuamgraney.
- Treats & prizes for participation

In order to book a place on this programme there is a cost of €20.
