Dear Parent/Guardian,

St. John Bosco Community College will host a Summer Programme from Monday, June 15th up until Friday, June 26th 2026. The programme will be designed to provide those that participate with opportunities to experience enjoyable activities, positive learning and promotion of self-confidence and wellbeing.

The Summer Programme will be based on the theme "Building Confidence and Connections". Opportunities will be provided for the development of social, emotional and life skills. Participants will also develop friendships, improve confidence and strengthen their familiarity with, and connection to, the school environment.

Potential activities include:

- Cookery Life Skills – preparing breakfast and lunch snacks and tasty treats.
- Art & Craft ex. tie dye t-shirts, introduction to clay/pottery
- Photography
- Sports options incl. Basketball/Badminton/Walking/Pitch & Putt
- Music Generation Workshop incl. visit to recording studio
- Barista Skills Workshop – developing skills for use in hospitality.
- Table Quiz/Bingo/Board Games
- Day trips ex. Kilkee, Lahinch
- Literacy/Numeracy Skills
- IT Skills

Please email me by Friday, May 22nd if interested in registering your son/daughter. There will be a cost of €20.

Please feel free to contact me with any queries.

Sincerely,

Damien O'Connell
